 WHERE CHESS IS AN ART, A SCIENCE, AND A SPORT *****

The founders of Mid-South Chess are International Grandmaster Alex Stripunsky and International Master Jake Kleiman. GM Stripunsky, who personally leads chess camps in Memphis, lives in the New York area and is dedicated to spreading quality chess to the Mid-South through Mid-South Chess. He competes successfully in major chess tournaments and is known as a premiere chess instructor, coaching some of the best young players in the country. International Master Kleiman is a recent Honors graduate of Rhodes College and has been teaching chess locally in schools and camps. Their chess instruction spans ten years in Memphis and has included elementary and middle school programs, camps, tournaments, seminars, and simultaneous chess exhibitions. All Mid-South Chess instructors are seasoned chess coaches and active chess players affiliated with the U.S. Chess Federation.
